Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Re

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.) and other restrictions of copyrighted material limit the number of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material that may be made for personal or internal reference use only on the premises of a library, school, or other educational institution, or a governmental agency, for the private use of specific individuals. For more information on copyright law, please contact the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, (978) 750-8400, www.copyright.com.

5. Acknowledge that you understand the copyright statement.

6. Enter article information. The sample citation below is used to illustrate which element to write in which box.

IT security planning under uncertainty for high-impact events. Rakes, Terry R.; Deane, Jason K.; Paul-Rees, Loren. Omega, Jan2012, Vol. 40, Issue 1, p79-88.

7. If you retrieved the citation from a Galileo database, please indicate which specific one; for example, Business Source Complete, ABI/Inform, etc.

8. Click the Submit button when finished. The typical turnaround time for interlibrary loans is seven to ten days.

Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
